You'll Fall for these Bingo Hall Ideas!

HOST A "FALLEN HERO'S" NIGHT...

Honor the police/fire departments in your community. Have a 50/50 raffle and donate the money to the fallen officer/firefighter fund. Ask your local police division if they can donate a t-shirt or hat as a prize offer. Also, let any police or firefighter in uniform receive free admission to play a bingo session on "Fallen Hero's" night.

FALL SPORTS THEME...

Turn your BINGO hall into a football stadium. Encourage players to wear their favorite team colors. Use Arrow Turkey Bowl bingo ink markers to add excitement!

HALLOWEEN COSMIC BINGO...

October is a perfect time to turn off the lights and turn on the black light. Arrow offers a full-line of cosmic bingo paper and ink to host a cosmic bingo night.

AUTUMN PIE BAKING AND PUMPKIN CARVING CONTEST...

Autumn is a perfect time for players to show off their baking and pumpkin carving skills. Host a pie baking contest, or pumpkin carving contest. For the pie baking contest have players pay an entrance fee that will be donated to a local food bank. For the pumpkin carving contest, the winner wins free admission to a future bingo session. Sell Autumn themed Popp-Opens® pull tabs Harvest Some Cash and Pumpkin Patch.

THANK OUR VETERANS...

Host a Military themed bingo session by donating all proceeds to helping our Veterans. Invite Veterans to dress in uniform. Play bingo using Arrow's patriotic bingo ink markers such as American Monuments or Statue of Liberty.

THANKSGIVING THEME BINGO...

Host a Thanksgiving themed bingo session complete with a turkey dinner at the concession stand. Donate a portion of the proceeds from the bingo session to a local food bank.

THANK HALL VOLUNTEERS...

Although many hall volunteers cannot be paid, you may be able to reward them with gift cards: $25, $50 or $100. Halls can create incentive programs with the volunteers. See if you can get local businesses to donate gift cards. It's good advertising for the local businesses!
